

Written in response to a request for "something with 57 in it" for a 57th birthday party for Tom Kysilko. It seemed logical enough to make up a tune with 57 notes. This piece is formatted to fit in a birthday card. Originally for viola.

Tom's 57 Notes

very slow

Dick Hensold

The musical score consists of four staves of music in treble clef, key of D major (one sharp), and 3/4 time signature. The melody is composed of 57 notes. The first staff contains 12 notes, the second 12, the third 12, and the fourth 12 notes, with a final double bar line at the end of the fourth staff.
